

This is GENUINE

I have been teaching for over 25 years, and the last nine have been at Hong Kong Academy. HKA gives me the opportunity to be challenged and creative in the way I approach teaching. At HKA, growth is encouraged and allowed to flourish. I have experienced exponential growth as a teacher, and that positively impacts student learning and engagement on many levels.

HKA's mission is truly authentic. It speaks to me and it also speaks to the culture and purpose of the school. The teachers and school leadership are constantly reevaluating ... what is best for the students and what furthers the learning experience? The diversity of my colleagues and students at HKA make teaching here dynamic and fun. Everyone is intent on developing themselves and sharing a wide variety of perspectives and experiences. It is a unique and rewarding place to be.
